

CBI Associate Membership Program

The College Broadcasters, Inc. (CBI) Associate Membership Program is for individuals, small businesses and large corporations who share the interests and goals of college broadcasters and/or do business with college media organizations. Associate Members are non-voting members who enjoy all the privileges of membership in CBI except the right to hold office. Proceeds from the Associate Membership Program help support CBI's activities on behalf of student and college broadcasters nationwide. The program also helps raises awareness of your business and services among CBI members.
