From: Rodger Smith, WGMU Faculty Adviser & WGMU Summer Radio Camp Director

Subject: WGMU Summer Radio Camp Release Form

Date: Thursday, July 3, 2014

The purpose of this release form is to inform the camp participant and his/her parent or legal guardian of certain risks and responsibilities that the camp participant will be assuming in the WGMU Summer Radio Camp. Although designed to enhance general education, participation in field trips and the camp program is entirely voluntary. As a participant in this camp and its field trip, the parent or legal guardian and the camp participant must sign this form to indicate an understanding and agreement with the conditions set forth.

There are normal dangers found in any type of travel and tourist activities, including, but not limited to, transportation delays or accidents. The University will provide transportation to field trip sites. The parent or legal guardian may choose to drive their child in their own car to the field trip site. George Mason University assumes no responsibility or liability for any injuries to your child's person or property caused by the acts or omissions of others during this period. The camp participant's parent or legal guardian is responsible for providing health insurance coverage for their child and is fully responsible for expenses incurred for any medical care or other emergency assistance received. Please initial here to indicate that you have read and fully understand this paragraph: _____

The following person(s) should be contacted in case of emergency:

Name _____ Relationship _____

Address _____ Telephone _____

A designated University faculty or staff member will accompany the students on the field trip and will primarily be responsible for the academic content of the trip. Camp participants are expected to observe the laws of the Commonwealth, will not consume alcoholic beverages, will not use drugs and will exhibit appropriate behavior while on the field trips.

Prior to the camp participant's departure on the field trip, an orientation session will be conducted to provide you with information on the trip. We urge the camp participant to pay careful attention and follow any instructions very closely.

Any medications must be carried in their prescription container and must be self administered by the participant. The designated person will also attempt to assist students who become ill or have emergencies.

By signing this form, the parent or legal guardian acknowledges the information about certain risks and responsibilities your child is involved in this program and that you are knowingly and voluntarily assuming them. You also agree for yourself, your heirs and assignees, to release and hold harmless George Mason University, its employees and agents from any legal claim or liability for any bodily injury and personal property damage that is caused to your child by the negligent act or omission of third parties while your child is participating in field trips and other camp activities.
