Session Proposal Submissions Open for National Student
Electronic Media Convention in San Antonio Nov. 2-4, 2017

CBI is now accepting session proposals for the 2017 National Student Electronic Media Convention to be held at the Hyatt Regency Riverwalk San Antonio Nov. 2-4, 2017. Media professionals and college media organizations are welcome to submit, and proposals are due by August 1. Proposal submission is online at askcbi.org/sanantonio.

CBI is looking to program more than 100 sessions for the fall 2017 convention with topics including career advice, technical skills, social media, promotions, writing, news, sports, announcing, sales and more. For information on the types of sessions CBI has offered in the past, visit the website from last year's convention in Philadelphia at askcbi.org/philadelphia.

Information is also available for companies and organizations interested in sponsorship and exhibition opportunities at the convention and the trade show. For more information, visit askcbi.com/sanantonio/sponsorsandexhibitors/.

Convention registration will open May 1 online, and for more information, including hotel, award submission and transportation details, visit askcbi.org/sanantonio.
